Protracted Services.

Pastor C. C. Young of the Baptist church announces that the meetings will begin tonight instead of Friday, as was announced in the paper. In fact, the first meeting was last night, and a good one, too. The work is well started and the pastor and congregation are hopeful and working for a great meeting.

A Mother's Love.

There was a striking example of a mother's love for her boy recently at Denver, Colorado. Eustace McGrath, a twelve year old boy, was almost burned to death in an explosion of gasoline. He was burned on the arms and face, and the physicians agreed that to save his life it was necessary to graft human skin to cover the burned surfaces. The mother, Mrs. M. C. McGrath, sacrificed herself for her child and eighty square inches of skin were taken from her body and grafted on the boy.

Charities Convention.

Portland, Me., June 16.—There was a large and enthusiastic attendance today when the regular program of the 25th annual meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Correction was begun. Under the general head of "Children" the morning session discussed the child labor question, work among Indian and colored children, and manual training as a preventive of juvenile dependency and delinquency. The treatment of criminals was the general topic of discussion this afternoon.

Revival at Hagerman.

The revival services that have been in progress at Hagerman for several weeks, closed yesterday. The meetings were conducted by Rev. John Lane, evangelist and gospel singer. He was assisted by Rev. J. M. Woolam, pastor of the Baptist church at Hagerman and Artesia, who is laboring under the direction of the Home Mission Board. The result of the meeting was about twenty-five conversions and eighteen additions to the Baptist church. The baptizing occurred Sunday. Evangelist Lane closed the meetings with two illustrated lectures, each illustrated with over one hundred pictures. During the meetings $1,300 was subscribed for the building of a Baptist church at Hagerman. The lot has been donated by J. J. Hagerman and is located opposite the school building. Rev. Woolam also has plans on foot for the erection of a church at Artesia.

Land
For Sale.

The Felix Land & Cattle Co.,

Offers to sell to actual settlers about 1500 acres of the FINEST IRRIGATED LAND IN THE PECOS VALLEY. PRICES LOW, TERMS EASY. Going with the land is a perpetual water right from the Northern Canal. It is also in the Artesian Belt. We have refused to put this choice land into the hands of speculators. We give all purchasers the advantage of bed rock prices. The land speaks for itself. Go and see it. Last year we sold 2500 acres to good farmers who are now cultivating it. About 1000 acres of apple orchards are being planted this spring. More land is being brought under cultivation and other improvements made in the Hagerman-Felix district than in all the Upper Valley. On account of its SOLID MERIT this is the most progressive farming spot in New Mexico. Inquire at the office of the company at South Spring Ranch or of the following.
